

Appendix A3

Reading Behaviors Good Readers Use

- # Good readers check the picture.
- # Good readers check the beginning part of the word.
- # Good readers check the ending part of the word.
- # Good readers look through the word.
- # Good readers look for chunks or parts of the word they already know.
- # Good readers get their mouths ready to try the word.
- # Good readers point to the word if they are stuck on it.
- # Good readers slide their fingers under the word if it is tricky.
- # Good readers think about the story.
- # Good readers ask, "Does this make sense?"
- # Good readers ask, "Does this look right?"
- # Good readers ask, "Does this sound right?"
- # Good readers try again if the word does not look right, sound right, or make sense.